A GOOD RAIN
Last night about 8 o'clock this section was visited by the best rain this season, and not a drop too much fell. All growing vegetation was badly in need of moisture, and this rain came just in time to revive all crops. And it made a tobacco "season" that will enable the farmers to get out their entire crop, provided sufficient help can be secured.

JOHN W. LUMAN

At One Time One of This City's Most Popular Motormen Dies at Newport.

Who does not remember happy, jolly "Jum" Luman?

A number of years ago, in fact, when Maysville's pride carried it to street cars,—the mule moved—John W. Luman was one of the front-end men.

When they changed hands and were converted to the invisible mule power John Luman was there at the controller.

And for many years, in and out of season, his familiar figure was almost a fixture.

But he saw bigger things, and went to Newport, where he took charge of a controller on the electric lines there and served faithfully all these years up to a few weeks ago, when he was compelled to give up and take his bed, where he gradually grew worse until Sunday when his spirit took its flight to that bourne from whence no traveler returns.

John W. Luman was born and reared in this city, and was 48 years of age.

He married Miss Kate Wheeler, to which union a daughter was born, who, with her mother, survive.

The funeral will occur this afternoon at his late home, 430 West Eleventh street, Newport.

Several relatives and numerous friends are survivors in this city.

FREIGHT WRECK AT UPPER LOOP

C. & O. freight No. 905 derailed one empty freight car while backing over the cross over at the Fair Grounds last evening about 11 o'clock. The damage sustained was estimated at about $50 to the car and $100 or more to the loop.

The Silver Grove tool cars arrived later in the night rapidly cleaned the wreckage away.

DICE-ZORNS

Mr. William R. Dice, age 23, and Miss Elizabeth Zorns, age 21, both of Maysville were married by Judge H. P. Purnell yesterday.

GERMANS LOSE HEAVILY IN NEW DRIVE ON PARIS

PAY FOR SLIGHT GAINS BY GREAT TOLL OF TROOPS—ALLIES HOLD LINES IN SEVEREST FIGHTING OF WAR.

German Hordes Slaughtered as They Advance—Villages Change Hands Several Times, and Advance is Not Taken by Either Side — American Lines Penetrate Hun Lines.

With the American Army in France, June 10—The United States marines attacked the Germans after daybreak this morning and penetrated the German lines for about two-thirds of a mile on a 600-yard front in the Belleau wood, northwest of Chateau Thierry. The Germans now hold only the northern edge of the wood. The Americans captured two machine-guns which are the largest pieces yet taken by them.

With the French Army in France, June 10—At the conclusion of the first 24 hours of the new battle between Montdidier and the Oise, the impression gained is that the powerful German smash has not brought the enemy the result he expected. The Allied line is bent in the center quite insignificantly and the resistance the French are offering on the actual position of the combat, appears to be efficacious.

Extreme violence was the dominant note of the battle on the first day and desperate assaults with huge masses of troops, seem likely to continue for at least some days.

With the concentration of troops, such as the Germans had been enabled to bring into the line at the point chosen for the attack, it was physically impossible for the defenders to resist in their advanced positions.

When the masses of German infantry came over, the Entente Allied troops, spread lightly in the forward works, fell back coolly, fighting yard by yard to the actual line of resistance. They held back the enemy just sufficiently to make him show his strength and to permit the main body of the defenders to make the proper disposition to meet him.

Only at one point was the real French line forced to recede and that was in the neighborhood of Ressons-Sur-Matz.

After the German infantry has started, four hours of the most intense fighting had brought them only partly across the Allied advance zone. They were battered thoroughly by the Allied artillery whose target was so plain that the enemy's losses must have been frightful, with very little to compensate him for his sacrifices.

With the French Army in France, June 10—(Noon)—Fighting in this war probably never has been more severe than that going on today. In the great battle of French and German armies between Montdidier and Noyon. The Germans attacking on a ground where the Allies were ready to receive the shock have found themselves thrown into a slaughter house whence most of them never will make an exit.

When the German infantry began coming over in the densest masses they encountered immediately an extremely hot fire from both machine guns and artillery, which mowed them down. As fresh waves entered the conflict, they were subjected to similar punishment.

The German progress must not be taken to mean that the German forces have overcome the defenders, who intended from the beginning to retire to their actual lines of combat as soon as the action developed.

Some idea of the determined nature of the fighting may be gathered from the struggle on each wing. The village of Courcelles changed hands numerous times and, when this dispatch was sent, was in the possession of the Allies. At the other end of the line Monte Renaud was still making a magnificent defense, and last reports showed that Le Fleumont was yet in the Allied hands.

The center about Ressons-Sur-Matz, where the Germans made their most obstinate efforts and formed a pocket extending southeastward, is the only part of the line against which the Germans have been able to report a real gain. Their intention is to try to reach the banks of the Oise and threaten the Allied salient which extends to the vicinity of Noyon.

The Germans knew when they opened the attack that their task would be difficult. Therefore, they sent in to the fray only chosen divisions, which had been specially trained for the assault.

It is estimated that they engaged approximately twenty divisions on the front line for the first shock.

The latest official communication from the German war office says additional ground has been gained by the Germans southwest of Noyon against newly brought up French reinforcements and that the Germans have taken about 8,000 prisoners and some guns. Near Bussare, northwest of Chateau Thierry the Americans and French again have delivered strong attacks against the Germans and taken more ground. They also captured a number of prisoners and machine guns.

On the remainder of the front in France and Belgium the attacks have been of a minor nature, although south of the Somme, the British near Bouzencourt have carried out an operation which straightened out a threatening salient that sagged in their line.

As the Austrians continue to bring large forces of men behind their lines in the Italian theater, the artillery activity and raiding operations are daily increasing. Throughout the mountain region from Tonale to the Brenta river and along the lower reaches of the Piave river the guns of both sides are engaged in violent duels. Numerous surprise attacks have been attempted by the Austrians on various sectors, but all of them were successfully repulsed. Aerial operations on a large scale also are in progress and fights in the air are of daily occurrence. Large quantities of explosives have been dropped on enemy positions by the Italians and a number of enemy aircraft have been shot down.

In the Macedonia theater there also has been an increase in the artillery activity, the enemy bombarding the Allied lines on both sides of the Vardar river. On the part of the front held by the Serbians the artillery fire has been unusually severe.

Official announcement has been the headquarters at London that 238 officers, men, nurses, women of the medical corps and civilians were killed up to June 1 by German air raiders bombing hospitals, and that 643 persons were wounded in these attacks.

IT MUST BE A DICTATED PEACE

Lyman Abbott, the venerable editor of The Outlook, speaks well: "Any man who proposes a compromise with Germany or a peace negotiation with this band of brigands is a traitor."

That is the truth in a nutshell.

Peace by negotiation means concessions and compromises here and there of advantage to Germany. It means a calm acceptance of the pledge of the Huns for some things presumably agreed upon in the interest of permanent peace.

Over and over again since August, 1914, it has been demonstrated that the Huns cannot be trusted. They have violated not only their most sacred treaty obligations, they have broken mutual pledges with respect to the conduct of the war, and they have committed acts of savagery against defenseless women and children and helpless old men which in their fiendish and wanton cruelty surpass anything that intelligent human beings ever before employed in warfare.

What, then, should be done with a nation such as this? Surely it cannot again be accepted in full fellowship by the family of civilized nations. The other peoples of the world cannot again enter into trade and fraternal relations with them and regard them as worthy of trust and confidence.

No. The peace that is made with the German autoerats must be a dictated peace. They must be told what the world expects of them in the future, not asked what they are willing to concede.

After this war is over there must be neither Hohenzollern nor Hapsburg on any throne in Europe, and it must be made impossible for some generations at east for brutes of the Hindenburg type to conduct a war of frightfulness like the one which is now devastating the face of the earth.

This is the spirit in which American is making war.

The contest may be long and cruel and bloody. It may take from their firesides and from their occupations millions of the finest of our young men and hundreds of thousands of the cream of our mature manhood, but, in the name of that God who has ever been the foundation of our faith in ultimate good, we will keep the faith and fight this Thing until it is banished from earth.

Nothing less than this will satisfy. Nothing less will make this world "a decent place to live."

ENCOURAGING SLACKERS

An amendment is proposed to the food bill in Congress to prevent the giving of aid to slackers. It said thousands of men are given employment in the agricultural department who ought to be in the draft lists and take their chances of going to war. If we intend to maintain the man-power of this nation we will have to abolish the slacker. The government is not doing that as it should. There are plenty of good men, not of draft age, who should be given employment and the fighting fellows to be given guns. This nation needs guns now, and not so many pens. And the departments, if they are truly patriotic, should see that the distinction is made. There is about as much writing as shooting going on in this war and we will not win until we stop it. Put older men to working and younger men to shooting.

Personally we know some families who would be willing to put all their money in gasoline if they could eat the exhaust.

Not many girls would rather play the piano than eat, but all of them would rather play it than cook.

What has become of the old-fashioned shiny-faced girl who could break into smiles without cracking her complexion?

Our observation is that when a girl has pretty arms she dresses as if she breathed through them.

KRUPP'S TRIBUNAL

(Pearson's Weekly)

The most secret and amazing Court in the world, perhaps, is to be found at the Villa Hugel in Essen.

Here in an underground apartment the mansion tenanted by Bertha Krupp, traitors employed at the great Essen death factory are tried for the crime of treachery. Death is their inevitable portion.

The cannon queen herself is the judge. Pitilessly, mercilessly, without a vestige of emotion, she passes the dread sentence. And she sits statueque and unmoved as the shrieks for mercy from the doomed wretch who has sold the carefully guarded secrets of Essen before the artificial atmosphere of the chamber.

More than one hundred thousand people are employed at Krupp's. Hundreds of nationalities are represented. And although it is the most carefully guarded arsenal in the world, there are occasions when, tempted by money, workmen disclose some cherished secret to the agent of a foreign power. Such a thing is inevitable in a mixed collection of humans like the one to be found at Krupp's.

There are hundreds of detectives living to and fro unsuspected. All sorts of traps are set. The loyalty of the workers is subjected to the most searching tests. Even wives are induced to test the fidelity of their husbands. And when a Judas is discovered, he or she is arraigned before this amazing Court.

THE BABY CARRIAGE

(Philadelphia Telegraph)

A protesting cry is sure to follow the announcement of the baby vehicle manufacturers that there will be a shortage of gocar for the duration of the war. One doesn't mind the curtailment of wheat, and the shrinkage of wool, cotton and other commodities; but when it comes to cutting out the baby carriage the powers that be are sorely twisting the sacrificial heart.

The baby carriage is not a non-essential. Everything considered, it is just as important as the freight car that carries munitions to the coast. Without it we are confronted with a handicap that impedes the progress of the rising generation. The baby must be toted, and the knitting bag and suitcase fall far short of meeting transportation requirements. Neither can the little one always be carried pick-a-back by papa, nor permitted to crawl on damp days.

Government work, of course, has the priority. Steel and cushion stuffs may be in urgent demand. But let us make further sacrifices along other lines in order that the baby carriage, like Tennyson's brook, may go on forever.

THE PRESIDENT'S APPEAL FOR NATIONAL WAR SAVINGS DAY

President Wilson has issued the following:

This war is one of nations—not of armies—and all of our one hundred million people must be economically and industrially adjusted to war conditions if this nation is to play its full part in the conflict. The problem before us is not primarily a financial problem but rather a problem of increased production of war essentials and the saving of the materials and the labor necessary for the support and equipment of our Army and Navy. Thoughtless expenditure of money for non-essentials uses up the labor of men, the products of the farm, mines, and factories, and overburdens transportation, all of which must be used to the utmost and at their best for war purposes.

WOODROW WILSON.

and labor with which to end the war, the practice of individual thrift is a patriotic duty and a necessity.

I appeal to all who now own either Liberty Bonds or War Savings Stamps to continue to practice economy and thrift and to appeal to all who do not own Government securities to do likewise and purchase them to the extent of their means. The man who buys Government securities transfers the purchasing power of his money to the United States Government until after this war, and to that same degree does not buy in competition with the Government.

I earnestly appeal to every man, woman and child to pledge themselves on or before the 28th of June to save constantly and to buy as regularly as possible the securities of the Government; and to do this as far as possible through membership in War Savings Societies. The 28th of June ends this special period of enlistment in the great volunteer army of production and saving here at home. May there be none unenlisted on that day!

May 29, 1918.

(Signed) WOODROW WILSON.

NOW FOR PLEDGE WEEK

With the Red Cross Second War Fund campaign brought to a successful conclusion, there is nothing left now for which the people of this country will have to prepare immediately, except "Pledge Day" for War Savings on June 28th.

Until the inauguration of the War Savings Stamps as a method of helping Uncle Sam and for teaching careless Americans how to save, there had never been any definite plan for teaching the people of this country how to save. Many people save on a "hit and miss" plan, mostly miss—and as a consequence there were few real savers among the American people.

The War Savings Stamps teach one to save systematically, many persons adopting the method of saving one, two or more each week.

Under the system which every one will adopt on "Pledge Day" when they agree to buy a certain number of Stamps before December 31st there will be systematic saving in every home in this country. The lesson of Thrift will be so thoroughly learned by that time that it will have become a habit, and everyone will become members of the big thrift army of Uncle Sam's government.

However, it was not with the view of teaching the lesson of thrift that Uncle Sam started this big War Savings campaign. It is because he needs the money to run the Government of the United States, and it is the people who are benefited by this Government who must support it. Uncle Sam does not ask for a gift of your money; he asks for merely a loan.

Between now and June 28th, sit down and figure out for yourself just how much you are going to buy in the way of War Savings Stamps before December 31st. If you will think carefully over the past six months, you can probably find that you expended your money for many things that you could have done very well without. It is the money that you pay for these things, that you must in the future invest in War Savings Stamps. When you once commence to save, you will find many other ways in which you can add to your savings and invest in these War Savings Stamps.

Don't forget June 28th. Be ready when you are asked to sign the pledge.

W. S. S.

JUST HOW GOOD THEY ARE

It is appropriate at this time to again call attention to the value of the War Savings Stamp as an investment. In the first place it is almost unnecessary to say they are the safest investment that can be made, backed as they are by the strongest government in the world. They will always remain at par, not being subject to the market fluctuations of other securities, even of the Liberty Bond. They are free from tax. Their early maturity (five years) makes them ideal investments for young people who may need the money within a few years for educational or other purposes at a time in life when a few hundred dollars will count more than thousands later. They bear a good rate of interest and are worth their face value from the day they are bought until they are redeemed by the Government. Best of all, they fill the card and certificates with amazing rapidity, through the setting aside of unmissed pennies, quarters and dollars, until, with the accumulation of stamps, comes the national habit of saving, and the double service to self and nation.

EATING CROW

(Manufacturer's Record)
Government control of railroads has quickly demonstrated that the fight against higher rates was based on a false foundation.

All the muckrakers in the land and all the political quacks who fought railroads will now be forced to eat crow. The time will come when they will also have to eat crow for their denunciation of all big business.

FLAG DAY

Is On June 13 and It Will Observed
All Over the Country.

FLAG DAY is June 14th.

It has a special significance this year.

America is being asked to observe this day through the schools and industrial plants by a simple flag raising ceremony.

Commissioner of Education P. P. Claxton, has sent to schools and industrial plants letters and suggested programs, as follows:

The Four Minute Men of the Committee on Public Information through the local chairmen will provide the speakers.

Department of The Interior Bureau of Education, Washington.

Address only the Commissioner of Education.

May 21, 1918.

Friday, June 14th, is FLAG DAY.

For the first time in the history of America the flag is being carried in European countries by legions of fighting Americans.

For the first time men of all nationalities who have adopted America as their country are banded together under the flag, in foreign lands.

There are many thousands of workers of many races in America who have those near and dear to them in these ranks, and who are working in American industrial plants to help win the war. They would welcome the opportunity to join with older Americans in paying tribute to our flag and in pledging loyalty to the great cause for which we are all fighting.

Flag Day offers a splendid opportunity for all of the workers in your plant to get together for a little ceremony of flag raising, with a simple program which will go far toward bringing about a better understanding of the war and unity behind the war, and will also strengthen the right spirit in your plant needed for war.

The Four Minute Men of the Committee on Public Information are co-operating with the Bureau of Education and will be glad to provide a speaker at your meeting if you so desire.

We enclose suggestions for a very simple program, and will be glad to send you posters and other material to make these celebrations a success.

We suggest you appoint a Flag Day Committee at once and get into communication with us for organization details, and with the Chairman of your local Four Minute Men organization for speakers.

The receipt of a report of the progress made and the results achieved will be appreciated.

Yours very truly,

P. P. CLAXTON,

Commissioner.

Flag Day Program For Industrial Plants June 14, 1918.

Prepared for celebrations in Industrial Plants to occupy part of the noon hour.

A Committee of employers and employees, with foreign-born men represented on committee, should be appointed to arrange details, secure bugler, singers, speaker, and colors.

1. Bugle Call—Rally to Flagstaff.
2. Flag Raising.
As flag rises, "The Star Spangled Banner" should be sung either as solo or in unison.

3. Salute to the Flag and Pledge of Allegiance.

(To be given either as song, chant, or spoken words.)

"I pledge allegiance to my flag, and to the Republic for which it stands. One nation indivisible with Liberty and Justice for all."

4. American's Creed: (To be said in unison.)

"I believe in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people; whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign nation of many sovereign States; a perfect union, one and inseparable, established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes."

"I therefore believe it is my duty to my country to love it; to support its Constitution; to obey its laws; to respect its flag, and to defend it against all enemies."

5. Address by Four Minute Man.

6. Song—"America."

SENATOR LODGE ON TERMS OF PEACE

The terms of peace this country could accept were set forth by United States Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, senior member of the Foreign Relations committee, at a dinner given to M. Justin Godart, vice president of the French Chamber of Deputies.

Prefacing his remarks with the statement that the only thing to do now is to "fight this war until we win a complete victory," Senator Lodge continued:

"I lay down no terms of peace, but I know what is necessary to demonstrate that we have won the war, and that is enough when I think how the war will end, for I know what things will end the war.

"We seek no territory. We have no selfish motives to serve. We are seeking to protect as far as we can our own independence and the independence of mankind. But we look for the end of the war in these things: "First, the restoration of Belgium.

Helps Sick Women

Cardui, the woman's tonic, helped Mrs. William Eversole, of Hazel Patch, Ky. Read what she writes: "I had a general breaking-down of my health. I was in bed for weeks, unable to get up. I had such a weakness and dizziness, and the pains were very severe. A friend told me I had tried everything else, why not Cardui? ... I did, and soon saw it was helping me ... After 12 bottles, I am strong and well."

TAKE

The Woman's Tonic

Do you feel weak, dizzy, worn-out? Is your lack of good health caused from any of the complaints so common to women? Then why not give Cardui a trial? It should surely do for you what it has done for so many thousands of other women who suffered—it should help you back to health.

Ask some lady friend who has taken Cardui. She will tell you how it helped her. Try Cardui.

All Druggists

We believe that Alsace-Lorraine must be returned to France. Italy must have the Trentino. We agree cordially with what the President said in New York when he declared that we were just as interested in defending Russia in the east as in our own work on the western front. If Germany gets Russia and retains possession of it that is a great victory, and this war would have been fought in vain. Finally, there must be a free Poland on Russia's western boundary, and a free Yugoslavia state on her southwestern boundary.

"Then I want to say that the cause of the allies in our cause and our cause in theirs. Be he a German or an agent of some other party or organization I care not, the man who attacks one of the allies attacks us all. The day for casuistry is gone by. Those who are not with us are against us. That is the unity to which we are approaching with rapid strides. The President has said that we are at the peak in the crisis of the war. I firmly believe that there can be but one end, and that is the victory for which we fight. There may be many dark hours before us as there have been, but we shall come through. We cannot fail."

HUNS USING BATTLE AXES

(Atlantic Monthly)

In a little curiosity shop in Montparnasse (Paris), I was attracted by the excellent quality and low price of a steel battle ax and mace, both of small size, but most beautifully damascened, and handled with tanned snakeskin. Later an Anzac friend brought me two more, and told me of twenty-seven being captured in one raid on the Boche trenches. There was no doubt of their age and authenticity; but how they ever made their way from the Orient to the Poche front is a mystery. They are powerful weapons and well adapted for trench warfare as it is waged in 1918, in competition with bayonets, daggers, and brass knuckles.

THE LIBRARY

As a Factor to Win the War is invaluable in the Y. M. C. A. of the Cantonnments.

Camp Taylor, June 10—The American nation is not a fighting nation, but it has accepted Germany's challenge and every effort of its people will be directed to the one end—winning the war.

This determination is shared by the soldier in the cantonment, who in civil life having been accustomed to make himself proficient in his chosen occupation, is now studying the business of becoming a soldier in order to be thereby the better enabled to serve his country.

This interest is not confined to the officers. Men in the ranks, in every branch of the service, spend a great part of their leisure time in storing away knowledge gained from reading books.

In every cantonment there is a camp library, usually a large building capable of housing from 15,000 to 20,000 books and with accommodations for 300 readers. These books may be read free of charge in the library or taken to the barracks.

In every Y. M. C. A. building (there are nine at Camp Taylor), in these cantonnments there is a subsidiary library supplied by the central branch and should you enter one of these buildings after the evening mess you would be surprised to see the number of soldiers gathered at the tables, or at the comfortable writing desks, reading military text books. Even though it may not concern their immediate duties they want to know all about the big human fighting machine that Uncle Sam is building so that they may be more proficient as a part thereof.

The library at Camp Taylor is located conveniently near Division Headquarters. It is conducted under the supervision of George T. Settle of the Louisville City Library, and the camp manager is J. E. Stanfield of Chanute, Kansas, a former student of the Kansas State Normal at Emporia, Kansas. Uniformed attendants cheerfully greet all visitors and extend every possible aid to those who wish to pursue a systematic course of reading. The books are on open shelves and can be had without formality.

As a factor to help win the war by sustaining the morale of the army and imparting practical knowledge to officers and men the value of the camp library with its subsidiary circulating libraries in the Y. M. C. A. buildings can not be over estimated. It is considered so valuable by General Pershing that he has asked for shipping space for books—50 tons a month—nearly 100,000 books a month—for use of the American army overseas.

Another valuable adjunct is that a book taken from the library need not be returned before finished in case a soldier is transferred or moves to another camp. It may be carried and read en route with as many others as he may have space for, and turned in at the camp library at his destination or at the military camps overseas.

UNCEASING MISERY

Some Maysville Kidney Sufferers Get Little Rest or Comfort.

There is little sleep, little rest, little peace for many a sufferer from kidney trouble. Life is one continual round of pain. You can't rest at night when there's kidney backache. You suffer twinges and "stabs" of pain, annoying urinary disorders, lameness and nervousness. You can't be comfortable at work with darting pains and blinding dizzy spells. Neglect these ailments and serious troubles may follow. Begin Dosing Doan's Kidney Pills at the first sign of disorder. Thousands have testified to their merit.

Proof in Maysville testimony. John J. Bramel, bookkeeper, Walnut Street, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have been of great benefit to me and in fact, I attribute fourteen years of my life to them. It was in 1902 that I was suffering a great deal. After long use of Doan's Kidney Pills, I became well and had no bad effects for many years. Recently, however, I noticed my kidneys were not acting right and my system was generally weak. I knew it was a return of the trouble and I didn't lose any time in getting a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Chanslor's Drug Store. They again gave me the same good results and I consider them a wonderful medicine."

Mr. Bramel is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, the same that Mr. Bramel had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 60c all stores. WAGES IN GERMANY

(Anaconda Standard)

An exhaustive article in a recent number of the Literary Digest gives interesting information as to wages paid in Germany in all classes of labor and trade. Much of the information is obtained from a summary sent out by the general imperial statistical office. It shows the average wages per day in various important groups to be as follows: Metal industry, $1.32; engineering industry, $1.28; electrical industry, $1.07; paper industry, $0.92; woodworking industry, $1.01; chemical industry, $1.24; stone-working and pottery, $1.07; leather and rubber, $1.20.

The earnings of coal miners run from $2.97 to $3.34 per year. The average earnings of miners in copper mines amount to $2.71. The wages of plumbers are from $1.13 to $1.39 per day. In Butte they are striking for $9 per day. Journeymen printers in Germany get $6.55 to $7.44 a week.

Workmen in Germany will not strike even though they are underpaid. They are sticking to their work because their country needs their labor. It is only in America that men are helping the country win the war by striking.

Personally we are not in favor of long engagements, but we do believe they ought to last until the ring has been paid for.

As a general thing, after a family has lived in apartment houses a few years it isn't satisfied with any kind of wall paper.

THE RICHARD SPANIARD PIANO CO. EAST SIDE OF MARKET STREET MAYSVILLE, KENTUCKY

FROM FRANCE

Richard Rayborn Writes Entertainingly to His Father About Things in General.

France, May 19, '18.

Dear Dad:

Received a bunch of letters from you a few days ago. You bet I certainly did appreciate getting them, for they were the first since I arrived here. Would have received them much sooner, had I not been transferred. I received fifteen that same day. Two were from Auntie.

We certainly are having some mighty beautiful weather. Have seen a great deal of France and think it is a mighty beautiful country, but at that it has nothing on the U. S.

You asked me to tell you all about what I am doing. Well I am mighty sorry but I can't. When a fellow gets scared over here they say he has "his wind up" and I for one have had "my wind up" several times. It is no fun dodging bombs and shells.

I saw in one of the clippings you sent me where Mr. B. Y. Chambers was coming to Maysville to manage the Telephone Co. He certainly is a fine fellow, in fact the best I ever had for a boss. He will be well liked by the people I am sure. Was also glad to hear of Lynch's promotion. He is also a very capable man, and deserved it. Got a letter from Brown the same day I received yours, but he said nothing of the changes.

Will be mighty glad when this war is over, for I never was as tired of traveling around. We are getting plenty to eat though, and I guess I should not kick.

I don't think you will be able to make half of this letter out, for I am laying on my bunk writing it, and a bunk is not a very good writing table you know.

I gave you my new address in one of my letters but will give it to you again Co. F. 11 Eng. (Ry.) A. E. F. France. Give everybody my address, for I sure do love to get letters. I suppose I will get a few more from you in a few days.

Every soldier I have seen so far, was a stranger to me. Maybe I will meet some of my old friends some day. Met a fellow a few days ago from Louisville, but he was in the Canadian Army. Had been over here for almost two years.

Well Dad I have told you about all I know, so will close for this time. Give Mam a yest regards, I will write her later.

Your son,
RICHARD.

NOTICE TO REPORT FLOUR ON HAND THIS WEEK

There seems still to be some misunderstanding in certain parts of the county with reference to the duty of persons having flour on hand to report same, and I will undertake to repeat what the duty is.

All persons who have in their possession flour in a quantity larger than furnishes a thirty days' supply for the family, computed at the rate of six pounds per person per month, should put out, sign and return to me at once the pledge which has been heretofore inserted in the newspapers. There is flour in this county which has not as yet been reported, and anyone whose duty it is to report and fails to do so, is rendering himself liable to prosecution under the act of Congress against hoarding.

Reports of flour will be received until the close of this week, but the matter must be attended to by that time.
